Jordan Dean Hunt

OCT 22, 1992 - NOV 7, 2015

Jordan D. Hunt, 23, of North Port, Fla., died Saturday, Nov. 7, 2015, at Sarasota Memorial Hospital, Sarasota, Fla., where he was called home to Father God. He was born Oct. 22, 1992, in Lehigh Acres, Fla.

Even as a small child, Jordan's radiant smile lit up the room with joy and love. As he grew older, his attachment to family made it so he and his sister, Jessica, always protected each other. As a man, Jordan grew to be such a handsome, enormously huge-hearted person. He loved riding ATVs since he was old enough to reach the clutch. Jordan only loved two women in his life and when he loved, he loved hard and protectively. This wonderful young man came to North Port in 2007, with his mother. He met Austin and Alex Young and they bonded immediately. The boys shared the same birthday, only two years apart. They have spent the last eight years celebrating their birthdays together. Father God brought him home because he was so special for this world and he needed a loving, protecting soul for guidance to the right path. Jordan and his friend, Austin Young, who died the day before Jordan, were more like brothers and family to each other. We were blessed to have these men in our lives. God bless you both, we will love and miss you forever.

Jordan is survived by his loving family, his mother, Deanna L. Hunt-Jones of North Port; father, H. Dean Hunt of Lehigh Acres; sister, Jessica Hunt-Phelps of Port Charlotte, Fla.; brother in law, Cody Phelps; and grandparents Rickey L. Hobbs and Loraine (Mikki) Hobbs of Port Charlotte.
