Just want to pick up the phone & here your voice but now you are looking down on us & keeping us safe. Miss you MOM so much. Give GRANDMA & GRANDPA a big hug & kiss.

Tammy Mardis posted:

I find myself keep picking up my phone to call and tell you "hey grandma I got some good news or this happened and I have to tell you something" but I can't. I can't delete your number from my cell phone cuz I think just maybe you'll call me. I miss your laughter and most of all you. You have always been there for me even when things were bad. Just the other day I know you was here at the house. Not only did my sound system to my tv shut off by itself but also my remote fell off my end table. No one was near the remote because it was on the other side of the room. I wish I could bring you back but God needed you more. I know you're always with us by our sides and in other ways. I love you grandma with all my heart. Sending hugs and kisses to you. Love your granddaughter, Tammy

Feeling grateful to have had the privledge of being Sylvia's nurse, then becoming a friend to her and Sabrina and Rick. Our loss and heaven's gain, and now she is watching over us all. Hugs, love and prayers to Sabrina, Rick and the family members I have heard wonderful things about but not had the pleasure to meet, Sylvia was so proud of her family and loved you all very much. Stay strong your mom would not want it any other way, she taught you how to be strong, and have courage. She was so ill however she tried very hard not to complain, and always loved to laugh and joke around. She was a joy to know, and I will always remember her for being so special, sweet and loved watching game shows. You will all be in my thoughts and prayers. With hugs and love sent from Ranee
