Heraldo Pryce

SEP 14, 1943 - FEB 7, 2019

Heraldo Pryce, 75, of Punta Gorda, FL passed away peacefully on Thursday February 7, 2019 at Bayfront Health Punta Gorda. He was in the presence of his loving family.

Heraldo was born on September 14, 1943 in Mandeville, Jamaica to Iris Ricketts and Oscar Pryce. He migrated to the United States with a dream that came to fruition with the start of his 30 year business Pryce Tire Repair. Even with his business being 24 hours/7 days a week, he always found time to be present and helpful at sporting and special events for his children, which made him well known and loved throughout the community.

He is survived by his wife Olive Stephenson-Pryce, 11 children, 8 grandchildren, and 6 siblings.

Family, friends, and others whose lives Herald touched are invited to pay their respects at the Punta Gorda Seventh Day Adventist Church, 1655 Taylor St, Punta Gorda, FL 33950, from 3:00pm to 5:00 pm on Sunday, February 10, 2019. The Funeral Services will follow at 5:00pm at the church. Burial will take place privately at Royal Palm Memorial Gardens.

The family would like to give a special thanks to Tidewell Hospice, Dr. Mark Droffner, and staff.

Arrangements are by Kays-Ponger & Uselton Funeral Home and by Royal Palm Memorial Gardens, Punta Gorda, Florida.

I was just sitting here thinking about Pryce tire and how that guy could change a tire like no one else could. I called him many times to fix a loader tire or any tire. I miss seeing his big white box truck driving around and wondered what had happened to him. He was one of the hardest working guys I ever saw. I googled Pryce tire and saw his obituary. So sad he's gone. His family should be proud to of had such a great hard working honest man in their lives.
